

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1894.

NO. 19

HUSTONVILLE.

—Rainy weather has prevented the farmers from finishing their corn planting.

—Mr. W. M. McAfee arrived home Monday from a trip that has been extended for some time.

—Miss Gertrude Grady, of Columbia, was visiting the Misses Boyle last week. She returned home the first of the week.

—Jonathan Russell and Steve Drye went to the Fork fishing for minnows. Mr. Toney Hinn and his daughter were here this week.

—Messrs. Jeffrey Yeager and A. J. Rice, of Boyle, were in town Sunday. While here they went calling on some young ladies, who don't say "hello."

—Your correspondent was invited to a tea party given by Miss Hesse Moore last Saturday night and the occasion was one as bright as it has ever been his luck to attend.

—The visit of the young ladies from Stanford was quite a treat and we hope they will come again soon, for we don't have many pretty girls up here that show themselves.

—The botany class, chaperoned by the teachers, went botanizing last Friday. When they got well started it looked as if the whole school was gone, but stepping on the inside you found the house full of bright pupils.

—The boys had some fun out of a young man of your town, the other night. They took him out on the Stanford pike and had one fellow on the roadside to fire a shot. When this was done the boys say he simply flew.

—William Dinwiddie went to Liberty Friday. M. F. North was summoned to Lancaster Monday on legal business. Prof. R. F. Hakeham was in town Sunday and Monday. While here he made a call on his best girl, Judge Stone, of Liberty, who is at the college Monday.

—The young ladies of this town are somewhat angry with the reporter for giving them three words by which to address their friends. But some of them say that it was the best thing that could have come out in the news. Girls, don't get too angry and compel us to use names which we can do it necessary.

—The Beach Grove Society met last Friday night, their usual time of meeting and entertained a good crowd. Miss Alice Drye, the belle of Hustonville, recited and did herself more than justice. All the society needs is a few more ladies like Miss Alice to make it a complete success. The debate was long and full of wit and sense, that brought down the house with many a hearty laugh. The subject was affirmed. "That Railroad Traffic should be Abolished on Sunday," but the negative was the prevailing side, however. The society will meet again May 11th and a good program is to be rendered, with music at intervals by one of the best musicians in Central Kentucky. The debate will be affirmed: "That the Wife has a Harder Life than the Husband."

HUBBLE.

—S. E. Dinsley sold to John Woods a lot of sheep at about $2.25. Mrs. Chris Engleman has returned to her home in Missouri. H. C. Walter and Wm. Blackerly bought the Catherine Blackerly farm at $27. The Joe Scope farm is to be sold next county court day in Stanford, and there is a chance to buy one of the best farms in this settlement. Julius Leon is with us again for a few days. All are glad to see him. Stephen Tracey, of color, came in late Saturday night, and on going to feed heard one of his fat shoats squeal on the road near by, and on examination found it had been knocked in the head, but the hog took effect too high to kill it at once. So the party missed the pork. The storehouse here is about done, and it speaks well for its contractors, Yeager & Barker. Some hog cholera in this community. The late school law has forced our trustees to have a well opened in school house yard, and T. Smith is the contractor at $25. Other improvements are also demanded of them.

Those Who Are Posted.—Will tell you that the finest and healthiest summer resorts in the northwest are located along the Wisconsin Central line, among which are Lake Villa, Fox Lake, Antioch, Burlington, Mukwonago, Waukegan, Neenah, Waubesa, Elkhart, Ashland and Duluth. Tourists and pleasure seekers figuring on their next summer's vacation should bear this in mind and before selecting a route drop a line to Jas. C. Bond, General Passenger Agent of the Wisconsin Central Line, at Milwaukee, Wis., and he will send you maps, time tables and guide books containing valuable information, which are mailed free upon application.

Not In His Knows It.—Congressman McCracken's successor and opponent will be nominated at Nicholasville on the 5th and 7th of June, respectively. The name of the party of the first part is James Bennett McCracken, and it is not probable that he will permit any party of the second part to forget to remember it.—Louisville Times.

—New York with an assessed valuation of $8,500,000,000 is the richest State in the Union. Pennsylvania is next with a valuation of $6,000,000,000.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—There is in Jerusalem a branch of the Young Women's Christian Association which numbers about 80 members.

—Eld. E. J. Willis, of Parkland, who used to serve the church at Turnersville, will preach there next Sunday at 11 A. M.

—Rev. John Ball Gibson closed his meeting at Corbin with 17 additions, among whom were a Methodist preacher and wife. Six embraced the last night.

—The following is the program for the Semi-Annual County Convention at the Christian church, Turnersville, May 19. —The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, was begun in Memphis Wednesday night. Ten Bishops and over 400 delegates are in attendance.

—It is stated that the proportion of drinking saloons to population has decreased in this country since 1873 from one for every 142 people to, in 1893, one every 272. Let the war on the traffic proceed, till every rum saloon is made to go.

—Bro. Weaver reports a glorious work of grace at Stanford. The "holiness" people had been there and had "torn up" things generally. In their meetings they would bump their heads on the floor to "get an agency on." He preached on Scriptural sanctification, and his sermon was well received, though all the points of the "holiness" preachers were answered. A large number were added to the church. Bro. Weaver speaks in high praise of Pastor Szemore's work. —Western Recorder.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—Mrs. Robert Harding entertained the Scribblers Club in royal style. Over 30 were present.

—Mrs. M. B. McAlister and Mrs. Josephine Evans returned yesterday from Orlando, Fla.

—George Cecil, aged 33, died of heart disease. The remains were interred in the Danville cemetery.

—In Judge McDowell's court this morning seven negroes were fined a total of $180 for shooting craps. This is right tryin' on the sports.

—Mr. Thos. Fox and Miss Mary Mohrly will be married Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. Q. Davis.

—The grand jury only found 22 indictments, but another was summoned and indicted came for murder and Charles Chatham for carrying a pistol concealed.

—The court for $1,000 brought against W. S. Hilborn, of Junction City, by C. K. Feats, of the same place, for violent treatment and damage to him and his property, resulted in a verdict for Mr. Feats for $225.

—Prof. W. K. Argo has resigned the position of principal of the institution for deaf mutes, the resignation to take effect July 1st. Mr. Argo will locate in Colorado, where he has been for some months past for his health.

—While A. H. Huthings' fast trotter Clover Leaf 221, by C. F. Clay, dam by Kentucky Prince was being exercised, the animal struck its left fore foot and cut the back tendon so badly that Dr. Leach thinks it will cause the horse to be laid up for the remainder of the season.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

—Corn planting will soon be over.

—What is looking fine in this locality.

—There is said to be a number of base counterfeit half dollars and quarters in circulation here.

—T. J. Spears has several apple trees on which the fruit was not killed. They have just begun to bloom.

—A H. Royalty is teaching singing at Grove. The Sunday-School on there is in a flourishing condition.

—The woods are full of candidates for magistrates in this precinct, although the office pays less than $25 per year.

—Mrs. F. Deik fell Saturday while out looking after her chickens, and striking her head against a rail, cut an ugly gash just above her eye.

—Wild turkeys are occasionally seen in the woods hereabout since the passage of the new game law, and squirrels are as plentiful as snow birds in winter and gentle as cats.

—A pack of hounds chased a fox Wednesday morning till it was so nearly exhausted that it took refuge in Mr. T. J. Spears' kitchen. Mr. S. being awakened by the barking of the dogs, went in and calling his son Charlie they attempted to capture it alive. They threw an old coat over it, and Charlie seized it with both hands, but Mr. Fox was not to be taken that way, and with a quick snap bit Charlie through the hand which caused him to relinquish his hold, when Mr. Spears dispatched it with a club. Charlie has a pretty sore hand as a result of his tussle with the varmint; says he will tackle another under the same circumstances.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Hemp has jumped up to $5 per cwt.

—Yeager & Yeager sold to Jacob Fox, of Indianapolis, a bay gelding for $140.

—M. S. Baughman sold to Dr. Buchanan, of Indianapolis, a saddle mare for $125.

—John Anderson bought in the Turnersville section a lot of fat cattle at 24c to 25c.

—Alex. Martin sold to W. L. Herrin, of the East End, a bunch of steers and heifers at $12.

—Directing, 2001, dogs from 10 to 15 miles daily. He is said to be in excellent form this year.

—Tharpe has sold to J. W. Bond & Son, McCreary, 250 bushels of wheat at 55c, at the mill. —Harrodsburg Democrat.

—The entries to Harrodsburg trots close May 1st. Five dollars nominates. Write to T. M. Cardwell, secretary, for entry blanks.

—I have on hand a 154 hand mule Jack for service which will take the place of the jack, John S. Wells, recently sold. E. P. Woods.

—Lee Hiles bought lambs of T. L. Adams, A. Gossett and Len Honston at $3.12 1/2 per head, and of R. T. Berry and W. J. Hitten at 4 1/2 per pound. —Georgetown Times.

—The guaranteed prices of the Harrodsburg Fair cover nearly all classes of trotters and pacers. Only $5 to nominate. Entries close May 1st. Write to T. M. Cardwell, Sec'y.

—Pace Bros. have about 330 or 400 lambs purchased to go the last of May and the last of June. They paid 5 cts. for May delivery and 4 cts. for June. —Winchester Democrat.

—Authorities expect the Australian wheat yield will be the heaviest in the history of this colony. They anticipate there will be a surplus available for export of 11,735,000 bushels.

—Liberal premiums given to saddle stallions, mares and geldings at the Harrodsburg Fair, June 27, 28, 29. Write for full particulars and entry blanks to T. M. Cardwell, Sec'y, Harrodsburg.

—Mr. W. P. Tate is plowing his corn fields before the grain is up to get ahead of the moles, which he never knew to be so numerous and destructive. The corn worm is also getting in its work pretty extensively.

—The Weather Bureau report shows that the last week of April was very favorable to all crops and farm work in districts east of the Rocky mountains. The wheat is everywhere promising and corn planting has progressed rapidly.

—It was $120 and not $1,200 that P. S. Hughes sold a half interest in a 2-year-old Belmont Chief to Judge J. S. Moore.

A naught doesn't amount to much, except in the hands of a careless person.

—That classic event, the Chester Cnp, such a race as we never see nowadays in this country, was run Wednesday at Chester, England, Lord Pearllyn's Quasatum being the winner. A champion prize Cheshire cheese of the value of four sovereigns was given to the owners of the first, second and third horses.

—Carroll county has a monstrosity in shape of a double-headed calf. It has three eyes, one in the center of its head and one on either side; two sets of jaws and teeth, two tongues, two throats and two swallows. It is being carefully cared for, and sucks two bottles at the same time, drinking about three gallons of milk per day. The owners have refused $1,000 for the freak.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Mrs. E. C. Montgomery sold to Reuben Williams a lot of shawls at 4c.

—The kid base ball nine went over to Danville on Monday and defeated the club at that place.

—The post office has been removed into one of the storehouses in the new Owsley block. It makes a neat, convenient and roomy office.

—The local base ball nine has arranged to play a game with the Nicholasville team on the latter's grounds the 11th inst. which is the date of the oratorical contest in that city.

—Rev. W. C. Young, of Danville, will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and an effort will be made to get him to preach at the union meeting at the Baptist church at night.

—Mr. W. O. Roney, the undertaker, has purchased a handsome vehicle to be used by the pall bearers at funerals. This is a decided improvement, as the long walk to the cemetery is very fatiguing, especially to old men.

—The fight on the whisky question at Buckeye is getting pretty hot, with both sides claiming they will win. A number of prominent temperance speakers have been taking part, among them the famous preacher, Young, of Cynthiana.

—The L. & N. railroad people have changed their minds and will leave the Western Union telegraph office here. If they want to take anything away, let it be their old jerkwater train. We could better do without it than the telegraph office.

—Miss Lucy Ford, after a pleasant visit to Miss Julia Reid, returned to Lexington Monday. Miss Fannie Shugars has returned from McCreary. Miss Jennie Burnside has been visiting Miss Katie McElrath at Bryansville. Dr. Tom Hood returned to Lexington after a short visit to his sister, Miss Emma. Miss Allie Anderson leaves next week for Knoxville, Tenn., to visit her sister, Mrs. W. R. Marrs. Mrs. D. M. Luckey is visiting in Louisville.

The Coxey craze came to an inglorious climax at Washington, Wednesday, when the "general" and two of his lieutenants were rudely arrested and placed in the lock-up, but bail was furnished for their attendance at their trial for disorderly conduct. Coxey declares that he has been deprived of his constitutional right to speak on the Capitol steps or anywhere else, and says if the courts do not grant him redress he will throw the country into the greatest revolution ever known. The marshal of the army of ragamuffins and tramps has issued a manifesto, in which he says, "Liberty lies weltering in her own blood at the nation's capital city to-night, stabbed in the house of her friends by her supposed guardians. Free speech has been suppressed and policemen's clubs have taken the place of the scales of justice." A few sympathizers in Congress are making fools of themselves by demanding to know by what right the police clubbed and cracked the craniums of the commonwealers, but their resolutions were treated with levity. The parade of the army is described as very grotesque, but it will hardly do to treat the movement as a joke. Determined steps should be taken to nip it in the bud by giving such disturbers as Coxey and his chief followers a time to cogitate in closely confined cells.

The republican victories all over the country growing out of dissatisfaction with the democratic party, which has failed so far to redeem its pledges, has given its members much assurance and a great deal of gall. For instance they really seem to believe that they have a chance to elect a member of Congress in the Louisville district; at least three republicans are aspiring for the nomination there. That party will also make a nomination in this district, if it can find a man fool enough to take it, and has fixed Nicholasville as the place and June 7th as the time for holding a convention for that purpose. There may possibly be some show for republican success in the 5th district, but in the 8th the republican has not been born who can beat James Bennett McCrory.

The Louisville Times, started by Emmet G. Logan and E. Polk Johnson, with Mr. W. S. Haldeman to back them, celebrated its tenth anniversary May 1. Dear Old Polk dropped out long and merry ago, but the other dear old man is still at the bellows, and, as he expresses it, making the paper scintillate instead of sermonize, epitomize instead of pad. With R. W. Brown, the indefatigable and tireless, as managing editor and John A. Bird's experienced eye to look after the city news, the Times fulfilling its manifest destiny of being one of the best newspapers either North or South of the Ohio River.

Another U. S. Senator has been suddenly called to join the silent majority, making the third within a month. Francis B. Stockbridge, of Michigan, died Monday night of heart disease, while on a visit with his wife to friends in Chicago. He was elected to the Senate in 1887, and again in 1893 and his term would not have expired till 1899. He was not a man of great force, but was regarded as an honest and conservative one.

There never was such an improvement in the appearance and general make-up of a paper as in the Lexington Press. New type, new headings and best of all new blood, give the paper now a metropolitan air, it has never before assumed. The new staff is as follows: H. T. Duncan, Jr., general manager; Pat. T. Farnsworth, general editor; M. A. Caseidy, assistant editor and business manager; R. J. O'Mahony, turf editor.

New York is attracting many of the brightest young Louisville journalists from home and friends. Mr. Oliver J. Cromwell, managing editor of the Post, whose capacity and perseverance brought him up from the bottom, is the last to be taken with the fever to seek a broader field. He will resign his position tomorrow, greatly to the regret not only of his immediate associates, but the editors of the State general.

God reigns and the government at Frankfort still lives. "General" Jack Gross is back in the adjutant's office, and matters are fast assuming a perpendicularity. This country would go to the demimonde bow wows pretty quick already if it were not for Jack to hold it up by its scandal appendage.

Nearly all the Indiana towns went republican Tuesday, and that party has charge of the municipal affairs in cities never before in their hands. It is sad. But it is an "off year" and don't count.

The sixth anniversary of the Lexington Leader, which it celebrated May day, reminds us to say that its success has been phenomenal. It jumped into the ring with two dillies already running and soon it was Eclipse first and the rest nowhere, even if its politics was republican and its home at the Capitol of democracy. Sam J. Roberts, its founder and editor, is a born newspaper man and a thoroughbred gentleman, and to him belongs all its glory and honor.

That man proposes and God disposes, we are ever admonished. Frank Hutton, the distinguished editor who died at Washington, Tuesday, was taken just when he thought he had reached that point where he could enjoy life. A few months ago he declared, "I am now for the first time in my life, ready to live," but when he thought he was best ready to live, he found it was his time to die. It is ever thus, and few there he that can count on the morrow.

Col. John O. Hodge, of the Lexington Observer, doesn't believe in kicking a man when he is down. He was Col. Breckinridge's friend in prosperity and he has not deserted him in adversity. He never loses a chance to get in a good word for him, and takes no stock in the Pharisees who roll their eyes in holy horror and thank God that they are better than other men, for oftener than otherwise they are not.

The democrats of the 31 Ohio were true to their colors and elected Paul J. Sorg to represent them in Congress by a majority of 3,000. The fight was made on the tariff issue and the republicans not being able to accomplish anything by argument resorted to their strongest weapon—the use of money, but without avail. The 31 Ohio will continue to be represented by a democrat, and a most worthy one at that.

Building associations are assuming tremendous proportions in this country and doing a vast deal of good in assisting those who are unable to buy homes in gradually obtaining them. There are now in the U. S. 5,878 associations, with an aggregate membership of 1,745,725 and $454,667,594 assets. Over 400,000 homes have been built by them for their members.

The Lexington papers are making as great a nuisance of the Rev. Southgate as they formerly did of Charles Bronston. Hardly a day passes that his position as to the Breckinridge or some other question is not aired till it has really gotten to be monotonous. Let Rev. Southgate and Rev. Bronston each requiescat in pace, pro bono publico, e pluribus unum.

Kansas has a larger proportion of children in school than any other State in the union. So says the report of the National Bureau of Education. She also has more men in the penitentiary, or ought to have.

A DISPATCH from Washington says that Col. Breckinridge has had his whiskers trimmed preparatory to his campaign. If signs do not fail in dry weather, he'll have his hair cut before he is out many days.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

While sculling Wednesday Manual Barrow accidentally cut Tom Nunnely's hand very badly. Both parties are colored.

The Cincinnati Southern will sell round-trip tickets at one fare to those who want to go to Lexington Saturday to hear Billy Breckinridge open his campaign.

The weather continues perfect for farming and delightful for living. The trees have in a few days come out in full leaf and all nature smiles in new and beautiful life.

Coxey is drawing many people to his army, but the low prices on sterling silverware novelties that Danks, the Jeweler, is now showing will convince the people that his store is the place to trade.

The report that the L. & N. would take off its night trains on this division was no doubt started by a jealous Lancaster man, who feels sore over the fact that even its little telegraph office is going to be taken away.

As everybody and his uncle will be at Lexington to hear Col. Breckinridge tomorrow afternoon, it has been decided to have the speaking in Woodlawn Park, instead of the Opera House. All the railroads will run cheap excursions.

Twins, both girls, are the latest additions to John Traylor's family. The mother, Mrs. Clara Doty Traylor, who used to write poetry and other contributions to these columns, is getting very much like the woman that lived in the shoe.

If you like that kind of thing, we are sure that the Uncle Tom's Cabin that is coming is the thing you would like. Remember the prices are fixed to suit the times—25, 35 and 50 cents. The latter for reserved seats. Secure one at once at the usual place.

When the hand begins to play and the donkeys and the dogs begin to go round, you will see people flocking to Walton's Opera House as they never flocked before. Uncle Tom's Cabin may be, and in point of fact is, a miserable old chestnut, but it draws like a circus and pays the managers. See the parade on the 9th and you will go to the show that night.

The Centre College commencement will occur June 13th at 10 o'clock, A. M. Gov. Mathews, of Indiana, will deliver the Alumni address on the evening of the 12th. Among the large number of graduates are C. C. Bagby, of Danville, T. B. Burke, of Shelby City; P. T. Chinn and F. D. Curry, of Harrodsburg; Ben Goodloe and L. Q. Nelson, Danville; Casey M. Owsley, Lancaster and Meredith E. Prowitz, Hustonville.

CHAD ORCHARD SPRINGS is now open to visitors, as will be seen by announcement in another column. Mr. Gus Hoffmann, the genial proprietor, was here Wednesday and told us that he would leave nothing undone to make this the best season in the history of this "Saraboga of the South." He has placed the board at $8 to $15 per week, according to service and location of rooms, cheap enough even for these hard times.

The worst lake that has visited Stanford for some time is the individual, who draws a crowd for the sale of patent nostrums and appliances, by pretending to preach the gospel of the meek and lowly Nazarine. He takes as his text the fiery injunction, "Don't go to Hell," but if he comes back here with that kind of racket again, the boys will make him go contrary to his advice. They will insist that he go to hell himself and that p. d. q.

The great Old Fellows' Temple at Cincinnati, the finest in America, will be dedicated May 15, when there will be the greatest parade ever witnessed in the Queen City. The U. & C. will sell tickets on the 15th good to return on the 17th at 1 1/2 fares for the round trip. The Queen & Crescent Route occupies the larger part of the building for its general office. A general holiday for the entire city. Ample accommodations for all. Don't fail to go. Ask agents for particulars. J. S. Leath, T. P. A., Lexington, Ky.; W. C. Robinson, G. P. A., Cincinnati, Ohio.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—John C. Turkington and Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Ben Woods, were married in Boyle Tuesday. The bride is just 15.

—Ex-Minister Truxton Beale and Miss Harriet, daughter of the late Secretary Blaine, were married in Washington Monday.

—Over 1,000 pretty Irish girls arrived at New York Monday in search of husbands. They will go West, where women are scarce and in demand.

—W. H. Greenwood, aged 76 years, was married to Miss Mattie Hooper, aged 25 years, at the residence of James Hooper, April 22.—Murray Ledger.

—A West Virginia lover was overtaken by the brother of the bride-elect Tuesday and fatally shot, dying in the arms of the girl whom he had hoped to marry.

—We extend hearty congratulations to ex-Editor Thomas H. Fox on his new found happiness. He was married on Tuesday to Miss Mary Moberly, of Boyle, who is said to be a very wealthy lady with many accomplishments. Mr. and Mrs. Fox will live in Richmond, where he has a position in Collector Rodew's office.

—Calloway Nance, a clever widower of the West End, was married last week to Miss Emily Gray, of Boyle. They drove to Harrodsburg and were married after God's holy ordinance by Rev. Mr. Taylor. After the ceremony Mr. Nance and his handsome bride left for Cincinnati where they spent several days. The Lexington Journal extends warmest congratulations to the happy couple.

—There are not many girls with the experience of this one from Newport and it is well that there is not. She was married when 12 years old, became a mother when 13, was divorced at 14, married again at 15, was divorced again at 17, and married the third time at 19 and was deserted at 20 with three children. Now she is in the lunatic asylum, having gone crazy over the death of her baby by starvation.

—News has been received here that Dr. D. L. Fry, of Kirksville, and Miss Emma Middleton, of the same place, were married on the 21. The doctor formerly lived here, where he made many friends, who will be glad to learn of his good fortune, for his bride is said to be one of the most accomplished of ladies. She is the only daughter of Dr. Middleton, with whom Dr. Fry is associated in the drug business. The doctor was always a good judge of fine women and we are glad to know he has at last got one of his own. Rev. John Bell Gibson performed the ceremony in his usual impressive manner.

—Honors and joys are coming thick and fast to Hon. A. J. Carroll, speaker of the Lower House of Representatives. Though he was always at his post in Frankfort and made one of the best of speakers, he seems to have had time for love making, and that his efforts to win the heart and hand of a fair maiden were eminently successful. The announcement is made that on the 8th day of the month of roses he will lead to the hymeneal altar Miss Sarah Holt, daughter of the ex-chief justice, who is described as a lady of rare beauty and attractiveness. Mr. Speaker, we salute you and wish you all the joys that can come of a union of souls with but a single thought and hearts that beat as one.

—The Cincinnati May Festival is assured of financial success. Sale of seats by auction closed Wednesday. Total receipts thus far, including premiums, $33,042.

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Circuit court begins here May 14.
—Forepaugh's circus will be here next Tuesday.

—Miss Gertrude Lester entertained a few of her friends Tuesday evening.

—Miss Lucy Jones, of London, was here this week to attend the Noe-Stanhill wedding.

—Mr. James F. Grinstead, of Louisville, was here Sunday to attend Mrs. J. M. Mahan's funeral.

—Lightning struck a house at Bird Eye mines last Thursday and injured two men, one of them so badly at last reports it was thought he would die.

—Everything is quiet among our miners and no trouble is expected, except a great amount of stealing and petty larceny as most of the miners that went out on the strike have nothing to live on.

—Miss Ida Stinson, daughter of County Judge James Stinson, died at her home last Friday morning of brain fever. She was about 19 years of age and had suffered for several weeks with the dreadful disease that caused her death. She was a member of the Christian church, Elder J. E. Terry preached her funeral Friday afternoon and she was buried in the family burying ground Saturday morning.

—Miss J. M. Mahan, who has been suffering with that dreadful disease of consumption, for several months, died at her home last Friday night. Rev. J. N. Presbridge preached her funeral at the Baptist church Sunday morning to a large crowd, after which her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery here. Mrs. Mahan was a woman liked by everyone, a devoted member of the Baptist church and leaves a husband and three little children to mourn her loss.

—May weddings are on a boom with us. On Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock, Mr. J. C. E. Noe, a rising young lawyer of Springfield, and Miss Sidney Stanhill were married at the home of the bride's father. Mr. Noe was a teacher in the Williamsburg Institute one year and became quite popular with our people. Miss Stanhill is one of our prettiest young ladies, being the one Col. Robert wrote to J. J. some time ago and described as the angel that St. Peter had permitted to escape. The young couple left immediately for the home of the groom.

At 10 o'clock Mr. A. J. Meadows, the junior member of the firm of J. M. Meadows & Co., and Miss Phiroma, the youngest daughter of Mr. L. P. Weisner, were married. Mr. Meadows graduated from the Williamsburg Institute last June and will soon be one of our most prosperous business men and while he is a good business man he can select a wife as he has secured the hand of one of our most charming girls. Both of the wedding parties were very quiet, only the immediate families being present.

—James Pepples sold to J. W. Adams a bunch of butcher cattle at 2c.

—H. T. Bush has lost four sacks with in the last few days while trying to pile Messrs Richard Colby and J. B. Harlan have also lost several each in the same way.

—W. M. Eskey bought of Silas Anderson, 13 cattle averaging 800 pounds at 2c; of James George, of Puhaski, 22 averaging 1,000 pounds at the same price, and of F. D. Rigney, of Casey, two averaging 1,300 at same price.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

CRAB ORCHARD
SEASON OF 1894
GEO. D. H. RUPLEY, Prop.

For the purpose of a judgment and order of sale herein on the 10th day of May, 1894, of this court, the undersigned Commissioner will sell at public sale, to the highest and best bidder, the following described property, to-wit: A tract of land in Lincoln county, on the waters of Dix River, containing 71 Acres and bounded as follows: South by the lands of John Traylor, South and East by the lands of Henry Traylor and West by the lands of M. Spoonamore, but for a more particular description of the lands by metes and bounds, the judgment of sale herein is referred to. This tract of land includes the valuable Mill Property known as Dunderberg's Mill, the dwelling house and other improvements. The other three tracts mentioned in the judgment and directed to be sold will not be sold, for the reason that they have heretofore been disposed of and plaintiff has received the benefit thereof.

The whole, or so much as will be necessary, of the 71 Acre Tract will be sold as will satisfy the debt of plaintiff for $5,100.00, with 6 per cent. interest from July 3, 1892, until paid, and the further sum of $1,071.74, with 6 per cent. interest from July 8, 1892, until paid, and its costs herein expended, subject to credit of $1,071.74, paid January 12, 1894, proceeds of Dunderberg's notes. The sum to be raised to cover plaintiff's debt and all costs of sale, $5,100.00.

Terms of Sale.—A credit of six months, bond with approved personal security with six per cent. interest from day of sale, having the force and effect of a judgment and payable to the Com'r. Lien retained.

R. C. W. ARREN,
Master Com'r Lincoln Circuit Court.

Monday, June 11th, 1894.

DRY GOODS.

SALE EXTRAORDINARY.

We have now in stock over $30,000.00 worth of new and seasonal Dry Goods, Shoes, &c. In view of several discouraging features of this season's business, this is too much. So we have determined to use desperate means to reduce the stock. The goods must be paid for and we must have the money. We want to sell $6,000.00 worth out of the $30,000.00 worth by June 1st. We will begin this

Extraordinary Sale, Monday, May 7th,

And continue until we have reduced the stock to a reasonable size. We propose to make a general reduction, from 5c Calico to $3 Silks, as well as hundreds of other items that we can not now mention. We expect to lose big money, but we will sell a big lot of goods and get the cash. That is what we are after. We will make the unqualified statement that never before have such reductions been made on choice new goods right in the middle of the season. You know we buy our goods cheap and you know we sell them cheap. Now read our price list below and see how we reduce prices for

THIS SALE.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mrs. Susan Warren is quite ill. Miss Mattie Panson went to Louisville Tuesday. Mrs. W. J. Spares was down from Mt. Vernon Tuesday and Wednesday shopping. Mr. Wayne Cook and wife, of Corydon, Ind., are visiting the family of his brother, Dr. L. B. Cook. Mr. J. T. Johnson took Mrs. America Rount to Louisville yesterday to visit his wife, who is her grand-daughter. Mr. J. B. Givens, of Paint Lick, was here Wednesday to see his wife, who is under treatment of Dr. Carpenter. Mr. D. A. Twaddle and family have moved to the Sam Road farm near Pleasant Point, which he recently bought. Mr. J. C. Siska, general yard master of the C. & O. at Handley, W. Va., is visiting his old friends in this section. Asa J. Fish, of Mt. Vernon, was in town Wednesday. He had just recovered from a very severe attack of typhoid fever. Mr. Adick Sparrow, of Marion, who came up to the burial of her sister, Mrs. John A. Hendren, returned home yesterday. Miss Lillian Forsythe and Biddie Givens, of Lincoln county, are with Mrs. L. B. Givens—Harrodsburg Sayings. S. W. Menster and R. M. Newland left Wednesday for Cumberland river near Somerset to spend some 19 days fishing and hunting. Mrs. Mary E. Wells, of Junction City, returning from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Charley Turner, at Livingston, spent Tuesday night with Mrs. Raimie Burks. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Christfield, of Kingsville, were here yesterday. They tell us the canning factory is progressing finely and they will be ready for work Aug. 1. Mr. Frank Sherman, late of Ghent, Belgium, the clever gentleman who goes ahead of the Uncle Tom Cabin Co. was here Tuesday arranging for the coming of his show. A dispatch from Van Wert, O., says that Miss Lucy Johns was seriously burned by natural gas Wednesday. She will be remembered as the excellent teacher of vocal music at the college, and as a very superior vocalist herself. Mr. Roy Beazley, son of Mrs. Mildred Beazley, of this neighborhood, has announced himself a candidate for the democratic nomination for jailer of Casey. If he win the honor the rub will come in the final election. Casey is pretty generally republican. Dr. A. D. Janka, representative from Muhlenberg and ex-commissioner to the World's Fair, member of the constitutional convention, &c., was here Tuesday, in the interest of the Louisville Commercial and secured many subscribers to that excellent paper. The doctor is a booster and if he hasn't got his eagle eye fixed on the republican nomination for some State office, we confess to being a poor diagnoser.

CITY AND VICINITY.

WANTED.—100,000 lbs. of wool. Top prices guaranteed. Call on me at McKinney or John Ellis at Hustonville, or J. M. Durham at Middleburg. E. M. Ware.

A LITTLE learning continues to be a dangerous thing. A negro boy of 14, Boyle Shelby, was given two years at Danville for forging a check, on which he got the money.

Our great sale of sample shoes has been the talk of the town; no wonder when we are selling $2.50 and $3 shoes and slippers for $1.98. Another lot just received. B. F. Jones & Son.

Whatever you buy in Jewelry, buy it in sterling silverware and don't fail to see the line that Danks, the Jeweler, is showing. This is a pointer for you. If you want the latest styles, see our stock. We can give you prices that defy competition. Watch our window this week. It is full of new ideas. Danks, the Jeweler.

ACQUITTED.—A few days ago Albert Hummel, who keeps a restaurant at Rowland, got out garnishees against 11 railroad men, who owed him for meals and they retaliated by swearing out warrants charging him with selling whisky unlawfully. The three cases were tried before Judge Varnon and a jury Wednesday, when Mr. Hummel was promptly acquitted.

AFTER Pat Cane was indicted for the murder of Marshal Sileox, his case was called at Danville Tuesday, but he wanted time for the excitement to wear down and at his instance it was continued till next court, and he was returned to jail without bail. Further information shows that the murder was even more willful than reported and had the people taken the law into their own hands and hung the murderer they would have been more justifiable than mobs usually are. The law ought to break his neck though, but it is doubtful if it will.

U. T. C. C.—Which being interpreted mean's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. and it will be with us next Wednesday night, Marney & McGowan, are the proprietors, and their advance man, Mr. F. Sherman, says they have the best show of the kind on the road. Its Topsy, Miss Little Akren, can't be beat, and her songs, dances and banjo specialties carry the house by storm. Old Uncle Tom, Little Eva, Lawyer Marks, the donkey and the blood hounds, a splendid band and a superb orchestra combine to make the show a good one, even without its many special features. Admission 25, 35 and 50c. Reserved seats at W. B. McRoberts'.

The Royce Entertainers are not unknown. The company is small but each member is an artist and music and fun follow fast and furious. Mr. Ray L. Royce has hardly a peer as an impersonator and he was eucored again and again, responding each time with something new and in the most good natured manner. Miss Lizzie H. Royce is a very gifted musician and showed herself the mistress of many instruments, while Art C. Moore as banjoist, mandolinist, guitarist, etc., displayed a most remarkable musical talent. The entire show was greatly enjoyed and we take great pleasure in recommending it to the public.

AGREED, BUT NOT INFORM.—Mr. M. D. Hardin, the noted boniface of Monticello, is here, with his wife, reviewing the scenes and recalling the events of his childhood and early life. Eighty-four years ago the old gentleman first saw the light in the house now owned and occupied by Capt. H. T. Bush. His father, who was James Hardin, and came from Virginia, bought the place of the distinguished old preacher of those days, Jeremiah Vardeman, giving him a negro woman and some boat for it; at his sale it brought $23, while double that amount wouldn't get it now. Mr. Hardin is the last but three of 11 children, the other two being Timothy Hardin, of Milledgeville, aged 79 and Samuel Hardin, 72, Crab Orchard. He went to Monticello 63 years ago and for 40 years of the time kept the Hardin Hotel, and made much money and many friends. He has had three wives, the first two bearing him a child each and the third and present, who was a Miss Worsham, an even dozen. Nine of the 14 are living, including the merchant and hotel keeper of this place, Mr. Mark Hardin. For one of his age, Mr. Hardin is remarkably preserved physically and mentally. His step is steady and he is the same jolly disposed man, which has always made him friends and popularity. The I. J. enjoyed his call and hopes to have him make many more during his annual visits to his son.

Pimples AND Blotches
ARE EVIDENCE THAT the blood is wrong, and that nature is endeavoring to throw off the impurities. Nothing is so beneficial in assisting nature as Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) It is a simple vegetable compound. It is harmless to the most delicate child, yet it forces the poison to the surface and eliminates it from the blood.

I contracted a severe case of blood poison that united me for business for four years. A few bottles of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) cured me.

—John McElroy, a high-toned turfman, is now chief of police of Lexington.
—The United States has 171,894 miles of main track and 49,824 miles of side track; total 221,718.
—In a wreck on the Burlington Road, near St. Louis, two persons were killed and several wounded.
—Freddie Gehhardt has become tired of horse racing and has disposed of his large string of thoroughbreds.
—Thirty indictments for carrying concealed weapons were found by the Lawrence county grand jury.
—The Train Dispatchers' Association of America will hold its annual convention in Chicago on June 12.
—The towboat Time, owned by Barrett & Son, burned to the water's edge at Paducah. She cost $15,000.

—Two hundred United States soldiers have been stationed at Spokane to protect trains from the Coxy thieves.
—Anur Armstrong, who offered to sell his verdict in the Collins' case, was sent to jail for 18 months at Indianapolis.
—The Hopkinsville Kentuckian, which keeps tally, says that 17 men were hung by mobs in April, making 39 so far this year.

—John Stagg, aged 97 years, the oldest man in Mercer county, died Tuesday. He was an uncle of the Staggs of this county.
—Representative Lisie, of Kentucky, is seriously ill at Washington, and the chances for his recovery are considered doubtful.

—During Monday night a severe storm prevailed in Colorado. The snowfall in the mountains was from five inches to two feet in depth.

—Alfred McCawley, of Paducah, shot himself through the brain because his umpiring of a game of base ball did not suit the bystanders.

—Two members of the Russian Imperial Commission to the World's Fair, were locked up at Chicago, accused of insulting ladies on the street.
—Hon. Frank Hutton, editor of the Post, and ex-Postmaster General under President Arthur, died of paralysis and Bright's disease at Washington.

—Owen county will take a vote on the liquor question in a short time. Several precincts of that county are prohibition, and the remainder want to become so.
—There was a landslide near St. Albans, west of Quebec, Friday which carried an arc a mile in length into the St. Anne river. Ten persons were killed.

—Another lynching was perpetrated in Iowa, by a mob at Missouri Valley, who broke into the jail and hanged one of the thieves who killed the city marshal last Saturday.

—The wife of David Fortune, of Deviers county, gave birth to four children—three girls and a boy. They averaged 31 pounds each. All died within 12 hours after their birth.

—A small hand satchel containing Mrs. George Gould's diamonds, valued at $80,000, was lost by that lady's maid while going to the depot on their return from the Catskill mountains.

—An anonymous letter received by Col. W. L. Davis, postmaster at Paris, states that the court-house at that place will be blown up with dynamite if Col. Breckinridge is allowed to speak in it.

—Six buildings at Kirkeville were burned including Wilmore's general store, George Dewing's residence, Mrs. Cotton's millinery store, Mrs. A. L. Jan's residence and two vacant buildings.

—A woman dentist has hung out her shingle in Holly. As the new practitioner is young and pretty, she has lots of business, and the youths of the place are said to almost enjoy getting their teeth pulled.

—Judge James M. Posey's collections of internal revenue as stamp deputy amount to $278,743.50, which is over $12,000 more than the receipts of any previous month during the history of the office at Lawrenceburg.

—Rather than remain in the Cincinnati work house, Carrie Taylor leaped from the third story to the ground below killing her instantly. She had been placed in the work-house for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

—Subterranean rumblings and reports resembling the firing of cannon continue to be heard in the Grecian earthquake district and the people are in mortal terror that more shocks may follow. Over 500 people have been killed so far.

—The monthly statement of the National Treasury shows a decrease during April of $8,852,239 in the net cash balance, and an increase of $1,199,971 in the outstanding debt. The mints turned out $10,750,000 of new coin during the month, of which $10,184,000 was gold.

—The unemployed of Cleveland celebrated May day in a disorderly parade and in listening to a speech by an anarchist. An entire street was occupied by the rioters, and street-cars and wagons met were wrecked or stoned. Many bullets and missiles were thrown, and several people injured.

—The president, cashier and three of the directors of the defunct National Bank of Orlando, Fla., have been indicted for embezzlement, misappropriation of funds and making false entries. Already 39 indictments have been found, and about 40 more are expected against stockholders and directors. The cashier of the bank, Ollie Poyntz, formerly of Mayeville, Ky., has become insane as a result of the disclosures.

—J. H. Lawson, Harrodsburg's colored councilman, is dead.
—Two Connecticut newspaper men will establish a daily in Atlanta, Ga.
—Miss Nancy Johnson has been appointed postmaster at Add, Laurel county.
—William Wells, a Methodist preacher, was arrested in Paintsville for moon-shining.

—The democrats of St. Paul, Minn., elected their candidate for mayor by over 1,100 majority.

—The president got a pull on himself Wednesday and sent in the nominations of 40 or more postmasters.

—The stentship Oceanic brought from China 61 Chinese, of whom 501 expect to be landed at San Francisco.

—Fredericksburg, Va., proposes to have a peace jubilee, April 9, 1895, to which Federal and Confederate soldiers will be invited.

—Collector C. H. Rodes took in $105,050.14 in April, exceeding the collections in any other month in the history of the office in this district.

—Mr. George W. Abel, one of the editors and owners of the Baltimore Sun, died of pneumonia. He was the oldest son of the founder, who ran it for 50 odd years.

—The 5-year-old son of John Lewis, of Henderson, drank a half pint of whiskey, which he found in the house. He was seized with spasms and died in a few hours.

—The number of post offices have increased 1,281 during the last 12 months, and now number 48,403. The mileage covered is 252,750,574 miles, and the cost $28,910,190.

—The Harrodsburg electric plant, which cost $12,000 four years ago, was sold Wednesday to its electrician for $5,000. It has no arcs and very poor incandescents.

—H. C. Casey, of Harrodsburg, has disappeared leaving a wife to whom he had only been married six months. Financial trouble is said to be the cause of his disappearance.

—A. K. Sutton, the whisky forger, was found guilty on the first indictment against him at Louisville and given two years in the penitentiary. Seven other indictments remain to be tried.

—Mount Hercules, Island of Papua, is the highest in the world, its altitude being 32,780 feet. Mount Everest, India, was until recently put down as the highest, but it is only 29,002 feet high.

—A landslide at St. Albans, Quebec, changes the face of the country for miles and causes widespread desolation. The family buried under tons of earth. It was thought to be an earthquake.

—By a decision of Judge Cantrill at Frankfort, the bondsmen of Ex State Treasurer Tate are allowed credit for $50,000 made from Tate's estate. The balance which they will have to pay is $27,000.

—The Great Northern railroad strike has been settled, largely through the influence of a committee from the commercial bodies of St. Paul and Minneapolis. President Hill made some concessions and the men agreed to return to work.

—John Parker, a 10-year-old boy, of Findley, O., was bitten by a rattlesnake from the effects of which he died in a few hours. The neighbors then turned out and made an effort to rid the farm of snakes, killing 68 from one den, many of them of mammoth size.

—A movement is on foot for the organization in one body of the employees of the Louisville and Nashville system. It is not plain what the object aimed at is from the circular issued, which recites that the employees should help the railroads in their present trouble.

—The daughter of O. J. Barwell, a Kansas safe robber, got 500 signatures to a petition for her father's pardon, and then raised money by washing and scrubbing to pay railroad fare from her home in Norton county to Topeka. There she saw the governor and secured the pardon.

—A fearful slaughter of Mexican soldiers by Yaqui Indians is reported to have taken place in the Sierra de Bacatel. Five hundred were led into a deep and narrow canon and then bowlders were rolled down upon the men, followed by volleys of musketry, killing and wounding about 200.

—James Shelton, a Jellico miner, cut the Ajax act. While he was going through a forest the other day lightning struck a tree, bounded off and struck him on the side of the head, cut a silk handkerchief from his neck and tore the sole from his right shoe. He was unconscious for an hour, but is now O. K.

—The situation regarding the coal miners' strike at Birmingham, Ala., is reported to be again assuming an ugly aspect. Owner Hopper, of the Little Warrior mines, and a party of miners returning from work were fired upon by the strikers, but no one was injured, the firing being intended as a threat. Other working miners were stoned.

Dr. S. F. Smith, of Nine Ridge, Harrison county, Mo., says: "For whooping cough, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is excellent." By using it freely the disease is deprived of all dangerous consequences. There is no danger in giving the Remedy to babies, as it contains nothing hurtful. 25c and 50c bottles for sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

Guaranteed Cure.
We authorize our advertised druggist to sell you Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumptive Coughs and Colds, upon this condition: If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any Lung, Throat or Chest Trouble and will use this remedy according to directions, giving it a fair trial and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer if we did not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied upon. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Cure for Headache.
As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headache yields to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to give a bottle and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, giving it a fair trial and the need of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only 50c at A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with Dr. S. F. Smith, Harrison street, Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory Rheumatism, but has not, previously been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe," he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed, sore to touch and almost to look at. I am the urgent request of my mother-in-law, Loretta Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my Agents surprise it did both. I have used three or four bottles and believe it to be the best thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant." For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

At a late session, Dr. S. F. Smith, with his wife, Mrs. M. S. Smith, a prominent member of the church, gave a lecture on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and Chamberlain's Kidney Pills. He says she was well in a minute after taking the first dose. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF STANFORD, KY.
Capital Stock.....$200,000
Surplus.....21,300

Attention of the public is invited to the fact that this is the only National Bank in Stanford. Under the provisions of the National Bank Act deposits are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the stockholders' liability for an amount equal to the stock, so that depositors of this institution are secured by a fund of $200,000. Five per cent dividends are declared on the deposits and its assets are examined at stated times by government agents, thus securing additional and perfect safety to depositors.

This institution, originally established as the Deposit Bank of Stanford in 1858, then re-organized as the National Bank of Stanford in 1863 and again re-organized as the First National Bank of Stanford in 1864, has had practically an uninterrupted existence of 30 years. It is better supplied now with resources for the transaction of its business than ever before in its long and honorable career. A number of corporations, individuals, firms and individuals respectfully solicited.
